

The Tatnall School

Part-time Spanish Teacher

Founded in 1930, The Tatnall School is an independent, coeducational, college preparatory day school situated on a pastoral, 110-acre campus in Greenville, Delaware, near Wilmington. Tatnall includes four academic divisions with 500 students from age 2 through grade 12. Our challenging academic curriculum and programs, combined with award-winning faculty and state-of-the-art facilities, create an environment that promotes the joyful pursuit of excellence. Guided by our motto Omnia in Caritate, or “All things in Love,” we are committed to cultivating a community rooted in care and connection.

Tatnall is seeking a dynamic and passionate Upper School Spanish teacher with the ability to teach Spanish from the beginner to advanced levels. The ideal candidate brings deep content knowledge, intellectual curiosity, and a genuine passion for teaching and connecting with students. They will foster a welcoming, inclusive, and intellectually engaging student-centered classroom.

Key Responsibilities:

- Teach 3 sections of Spanish

A Tatnall Teacher:

- Demonstrates a student-centered approach to education
- Designs and implements engaging lessons that develop critical thinking and real-world connections
- Builds strong relationships with students and creates a supportive and positive classroom environment
- Provides clear, timely feedback to support student growth
- Shares a commitment for diversity, equity, and community through culturally responsive and identity-affirming practices
- Works closely and collegially with students, faculty, administrators, and parents in a lively independent school setting.
- Participates fully in ongoing reflection, professional development, and collaboration with department members

Qualifications and skills:

- Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree preferred
- Three or more years of teaching experience is preferred; strong early career candidates will be considered, and mentorship is available
- Experience working with diverse groups of students and an appreciation for a range of learning styles
- Excellent written and oral communication skills

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to:
